Tailenders Again-Pittsburgs Outplay the Philadelphias, Whose Lead Is Reduced-St. Louis Stops Boston's Winning Streak. The Brooklyns played real championship ball behind the superb pitching of Bill Kennedy esterday and the Chicagos were easily beaten again. The Champions also reduced the lead of the Philadeiphias to 66 points, as the Quakers were outplayed by the Pittsburgs. St. Louis stopped the winning streak of the Bostons and incidentally took fourth place away from the Chicagos. The Cincinnatis again trounced the New Yorks, who dropped once more into last place. If anything could happen to "Roaring Bill" Kennedy these days the Brooklyns would be in sore straits. With most of the pitchers not in the best of trim. Rennedy continues to pitch phenomenal ball. Yesterday Hanlon put Kennedy in against the Chicagos, although he pitched the last four innings of Monday's game, and Bill had the visitors so completely under his thumb that the Brooklyns were enabled to win with a comfortable margin. The Chicagos made six hits, three of which were bunched in the fourth inning and yielded two runs. Kensteady with men on bases. CINCINNATI, 11; NEW YORK, 5.

The game at the Polo Grounds yesterday passed beyond the stage of farce comedy. It was simply a pitiable exhibition of basebail and after it was all over the New Yorks again found themselves in last place. Doheny started in to pitch. He was very wild. Two bases on balls in succession, a balk and a single by Steinfeldt scored two very easy runs in the second. He had little speed and although the Cincinnatis did not hit him very hard, they piled up five runs. Then Doheny split his hand in fielding a sharp hit from Steinfeldt's bat in the fifth inning. Hawley took his place and was touched up for ten hits in the remaining four innings. The New Yorks are badly off for pitchers and to make matters worse a despatch from Hartford says that Si Seymour will quit the Polo Grounds team and join the Worcester club to-morrow. Seymour has had no control of the ball all this

The Case of "Broadway" Smith.

The officials of the Brooklyn Baseball Club, in spite of protests, have determined to take Catcher Alexander Smith off the payroll. Smith has been notified that he must look to the Hartford club of the Eastern League for his salary until such time as his services are needed by Manager Hanlon. The Brooklyn club refuses to reease Smith outright and Smith refuses to go to Hartford. Consequently the player will lease him?" asked The Sun reporter.

"We are not releasing players outright who are of any worth to us," was the reely. "If we did, that would give other players an excuse to get free. If Smith would do as I tell him, everything would be all right."

"Smith, then, has no redress unless he goes to Hartford?"

"That's about the size of it," answered Hanlon. "I am going to manage the Brooklyn team to suit myself and as long as we are winning I see no reason to make changes. Farrell is catching all right and McGuire will be in shape in a few days."

Manager Barnie said that he would like to have Smith join his club, as he would help out the Hartfords immensely. Barnie said that Hanlon had agreed to let Smith go to him with the understanding that the player would return the moment he was sent for. Baseball law makes it possible for club owners to inflict such treatment upon their players. Smith has signed no contract to play with the Brooklyn team this season, but he is held by the reserve clause. If he had signed a contract the club could "farm" him to Hartford just the same. Smith wants to play ball in Greater New York and says that when it is forced upon him to go to another city he will quit the game, as he and his brother have a profitable livery stable in this city. It makes no difference what arguments are offered, the fact remains that Smith has not received fair treatment. He should either be released outright or be allowed to take his turn behind the bat.

INDIAN FAIRY'S GAZELLE. DAUGHTER OF IROQUOIS WINS STAKE

FEATURE AT GRAVESEND. Steeplechase Furnishes Sensational Inci dents—Two Horses Fall, but Do Little Damage—Jockey Haher Scores Twice off the Reel—Driving Finishes the Order.

Favorites were again hard to pick at the Gravesend track yesterday, and it was not until the fourth race that the faithful got in line. Another good investment went wrong in the fifth event, but the plungers found a life saver in the sixth. Among the jockeys Maher distinguished himself by putting two straight winners over the plate, and landing second at a good price in another race.

The only stake feature was the Gazelle, for three-year-old fillies. Although it carried a guaranteed value of $3,000 and the distance was reduced for the first time from nine furlongs to one mile and a sixteenth, only four of the fourteen fillies eligible turned out. Of these Indian Fairy, from the Featherstone stable, carried the heavy money. Oneck Queen and Motley were about equal second choices. Maher took the Queen out at flagfall, but Indian Fairy promptly sprinted past her and held the advantage to the end. Oneck Queen made a gallant effort to close the gap in the homestretch but Indian Fairy had all of her last year's speed but Indian Fairy had all of her last year's speed and won out by three parts of a length. The others trailed in with Motley six lengths clear of Flower of Gold.

The lack of enthusiasm noticeable during the running of the stake was followed by almost feverish excitement when the steeplechasers turned out. The handicap was so well framed that only three of the fourteen jumpers colored on the card declined the issue. E. S. Craven sent a formidable pair, Philae and Wace, and they were coupled in the betting at 14 to 5. Ronkonkoma ruled next in demand at 7 to 2, and Filon d'Or had a confident following at 5 to 1. At the last fence on the backstretch the second time round Filon d'Or fell heavily and wrenched Jockey Chandler's back. Tantris collapsed at the same obstacle but both horses were quickly up and going again. Filon d Or came around outside his jumps until he reached the guard fence of the bulletin enclosure opposite the judges. He almost cleared it but caucht with his hind legs and turned two somersaults to a chorus of hysterical screams from the women spectators. Tantris essayed to duplicate the trick but thought better of it and the two were caught and led away little the worse for their tumbles.

trick but thought better of it and the two were caught and led away little the worse for their tumbles.

Meanwhile the others were pegging along merrily in a cluster and taking their fences in faultiess style. Nearly all had a fighting chance half a mile from home, but the quickening pace then began to tell on a few and Philae took command. Charagrace moved up after her and won in a hot drive by a length Ronkonkoma finished third, about six lengths away and half that distance in front of Perion, who had run himself out chasing Trillion in the early stages. Frank D. Beard and his friends got some snug bets down on the winner at odds ranging from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Charagrace was trained to a hair by Dr. John A. Kyle and nursed along so patiently by Barry that he wound up within a second of the track record, made by Olindo last year.

Rikki Tikki Tavi got into the lightweight handicap at 104 pounds, and the Oneck Stable put up two pounds more to secure the services of Maher. Danny brought the colt through by half a length from Vulcain, and followed his hand by a magnificent finish on First Whip. The latter just beat the favorite Kinnikinic a head, while Nansen was only a neck away. Fair Rosamond was ignored by the wise ones on account of her jockey, but Frasch showed he knew a good deal about riding and he rushed the 15 to 1 shot up in time to beat the first choice, Cherries, a length. Lief Prince won the last race of the day in good style by a neck from Scurry. Summary:

RESULTS ON OTHER TRACKS

CINCINNATI, June 6 .- Showers and threatening skies caused a light attendance at Newport to-day. In the first race G. H. Brown's three-year-old filly, J. Lucille, 12 to 1 in the betting, broke down. Harshberger, one of the principal jockeys of the track, Iwas set down for a week for insubordination at the post. Hiram Scoggan's Florizar, entered for two Derbles, at St. Louis and Chieaco was kicked in the fourth race at the start and although not apparently hurt, the kick will do him no good. He got off last and finished the same way to-day. Summarles:

Chicago.

Chicago, June 6.—The racing at Hawthorne was without special feature to day except the bad condition of the track. It was poor enough during the first four meas because of the heavy rains of the next process. The manner of a lake, with water, giving it the appearance of a lake, the possibilities of sport were destroyed. The June Stakes promised to be a good race but the mud forced the withdrawal of most of the good horses and with the exception of Larkspur, the winner, only platers contested for the prize. Summary:

First Pace—Five furlongs—Matin, 115 (Devin), 5 to 2, won, Sannazaro, 118 (Crowhurst), 20 to 1, third. Time, 120 1, won; Abe Furst, 127 (Knight), 4 to 5, second; Walkenshaw, 129 (R. Narvaez), 5 to 2, third. Time, 120 1, Third. Race—One mile, and a sixteenth—Lo-Time, 1:20 4.

The semil-final round in the Columbia University tennis tournament was played yesterday. In the first series I. E. Mahan, '03, college, defeated N. P. Chase, P. G., 5—7, 6—0, 6—4. The surorise of the tournament has been the exceptional playing of H. H. Bovesen, 1950, who defeated L. G. Bates, '03, the runner-up in last fail's tournament and a member of the Varsity team that met Princeton. Boyesen defeated Bates, 2—6, 6—4, 6—4. To-day Mahan and Boyesen will meet in the final round for the championship cup. The Columbia team will be greatly strengthened this month by Wyle C. Grant, the interscholastic champion from Drisler School, who will matriculate in the freshman class. Grant has been playing in the Southern championships at Washington, D. C. New Haven, June 6—The results of the fourth and semi-final rounds of the Yale University tennis tournament were announced tonight:

Fourth Round—E. C. Ostby, '03, beat H. Scoville, '70, N. A. Plummer, '03, beat R. B. Dresser, '02, C.
L. Childs, '01, beat P. K. Condict, '03; Harold Hackett, 1900, beat E. A. Stebbins, '02. L. Childs, '01, beat P. K. Condict, '03; Harold Hackett, 1900, beat E. A. Stebbins, '02.

In the semi-final round N. A. Plummer, who played in the intercollegiate match last fall, beat E. C. Ostby, a freshman who has done remarkably well. The sets in which H. Hackett beat C. L. Childs were the best which have cocurred in the fournament. Childs was champion of class 1902 last year. The finals between Hackett and Plummer will be played off on Friday, and the winner will play J. A. Allen for the university championship. Harry Galpin, Secretary of the Tennis Association, said tonight that the association had decided to give a silver cup to the runner-up and a slik banner to the winner of the university championship. The first annual tennis tournament of the Girls' Interscholastic Athletic League began yesterday in the old armory building, corner of Hanson place and Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. The opposing teams represented the Manual Training High School of Brooklyn and Erasmus Hall Righ School of Flatbush. The Erasmus Hall Righ School of Flatbush. The Erasmus Hall Righ School of Flatbush. The Erasmus Hall girls carried off the honors in the doubles and will probably annex the singles. The summaries:

HIS HAND IN BAD SHAPE AND HIS MATCH WITH RUBLIN IS OFF. Allow Him to Meet Sharkey, and That Battle Is Also Scratched From the Boxing

Programme -Ruhlin May Meet Sharkey. Former Champion Bob Fitzsimmons has been compelled to call his match with Gue Ruhlin off owing to the fact that his left hand, which he injured on his recent encounter with Ed Dunkhorst, the "Human Freight Car," is in a very bad way. The match originally was to have taken place at Tuckahoe, N. Y., on June 1, but the hand caused Fitzsimmons to ask for a postponement until June 15.

Up to Monday Fitz was confident that the hand would not prevent him from tackling Ruhlin, but the wound caused him such pain that acting under the advice of his wife he went to Bellevue Hospital yesterday morning was busy and turned the noted fighter over to Dr. Edgerton, who found the member was was festered and a lot of pus had accumulated. The doctor drew the matter out and bandaged the hand. When Fitz asked whether the doo 15. Dr. Edgerton shook his head and said:

"Not from the present looks of things. You better be careful, Mr. Fitzsimmons, for if you

McCoy and Fitz-immons. Now that these mills have been abandoned Sharkey and Ruhlin will have no further obstacle in coming together. will have no further obstacle in coming together. Ruhin has been training for many months and he fears that to continue may cause him to get stale. He would be willing, no doubt to have the fight settled at an earlier date than June 25. Sharkey, who has been training very hard, is in fine shape and may meet Ruhlin earlier.

June 25. Sharkey, who has been training very hard, is in flue shape and may meet Ruhlin earlier.

Fitzsimmons was interviewed last night at Bergen Beach. He said:

"It is true that I have called my fight with Ruhlin off. I will forfelt $1,000 to him, and I am very sorry that I cannot fight him. I will be compelled to carry my hand in splints for six weeks. The least bit of injury to it, my physician says, will retard its complete recovery, and I am not going to hamper it in any way. I may be able to meet Jeffres next August, but the way things look it is very doubtful. I will not allow myself to get out of condition. I will keep on running every day just to keen my muscles limber."

Last might Martin Julian, one of the promoters of the Westchester A. C. In company with Billy Madden, manager of Ruhlin, went down to Bergen Beach and called upon Fitz-simmons to ascertain whether it was really true that the match was off. Fitz admitted such was the case, and agreed to forfelt $1,000. Of this $500 to the club. Julian examined Fitz's hand and was convinced that the injury had not been exagorated. He told Fitz that he was sorry for him. Before he left he asked Madden whether Ruhlin would concent to fight Jim Jeffries on the same date. Madden responded that Ruhlin was open to meet any one in the business. Julian telegraphed to the champion and expects an answer from him to-day. It is not likely that Jeffries will accept unless he has time in which to train.

M'COY WILL NOT PIGHT SHARKEY The Kid Says He Is in No Condition to Meet the Satior Just Now.

Kid McCoy announced yesterday that his battle with Tom Sharkey, which was to have been decided at Coney Island on June 25, has peen postponed indefinitely. He admits that the fight was deferred at his own request as Besides four minor tournaments, for which cipal event will be offered, the principal event will be the international masters' contest with eight priz s to the amounts of 1,000,750,500,400,300,200,150 and 100 marks respectively. The Prince Regent Luitpold of Bayariahas moreover, donated a handsome silver cup for the winner of the first prize, silver cup for the winner of the first prize. his health just now is not all he desires turn he said:

"The impression which prevails that I am afraid of Sharkey is all wrong. I sincerely think I can beat him, or else I would not have signed articles of agreement. But to go into a ring with a man who is both strong and shifty when I think I cannot get into shape would be foolbardy. I have been doing a lot of work of late. I have met Ryan Creedon, Bonner and several other men, and I guess a brief vacation wont do me any barm. I may take a trip to Europe this summer. I shall do plenty of fighting this fall, but what I am looking out for is to see that my health is not in any way sacrificed."

At the conclusion of the fight between Eddie Connolly and Matty Matthews at Coney Island on Tuesday night the latter's manager, John P. Dunn, approached Referee Madden and said: "Now see what you've done to me. People asked me if you were on the square, and I asked me if you were on the square, and I always told them yes. But you've thrown me down after I was instrumental in getting you into this club."

Madden poid little attention to this nonsense for the reason that Connolly had won so impressively that a decision against him would have been called a "robbery," and would have seriously injured the Coney Island Club. Madden could have made so other ruling. He is fair and honest beyond the question of a doubt. Dunn was probably carried away by sentiment, but his break was uncalled for.

Joe Walcott, who was threatened with a long siege of illness, has resumed training. He siege of lliness, has resumed training. He is still weak, but expects to be all right within the next few days. Walcott is not to meet Joe Choynski in Chicago after all. Yesterday his manager, Tom O'Rourke, received word that the Californian heavyweight refuses to tackle Walcott again. No reason is given but the impression prevails that Choynski is afraid. Welcott's matches with Billy Stift and Tommy West are still on. They will take place within a month's time.

A match between "Rube" Ferns of Buffalo, who defeated "Mysterious" Billy Smith, and Eddie Connolly of St. John, who defeated Matty Matthews at Coney Island on Monday, was arranged has night. Although no articles were signed it was agreed that the men shall meet for twenty-five rounds at Coney Island the latter part of this month. The fight will be at 140 counds, weigh in at 3 o'clock. 140 pounds, weigh in at 3 o'clock.

Frank Erne, who holds the lightweight champion most businesslike way. McFadden's manager has posted a forfelt of $1,000 to make a match, at any weight suitable to Erne, the winner to take all. The Coney Island Club has offered a $4,000 purse for this match, which is good money these days. Erne, however, refuses to meet McFadden on the ground that he has defeated him once. But it will be remembered that Erne had no great advantage over McFadden in the mill, and many persons thought the decision should have been a draw. Erne prefers to take on Jack O'Brien again, who is said to be in rather poor shape since his, thumning match with McFadden, which ended in a draw. McFadden's money is up and his terms are reasonable. most businesslike way. McFadden's manager has been matched us bux twenty rounds at the Greenwood A. C. 'try outs' to-night

The attraction at the Broadway A. C. to-morrow night will be a twenty-round bout between Tom Sharkey and Yank Kenny.

Matchmaker Bruce has arranged a twenty-round "go" between Harry Peppers of California and George Cole of Trenton at the Sampson A. C. next Monday night

The Seaside Sporting Club will hold bouts next Saturday night. Jimmy Handler and Charley McKeever will meet for twenty five rounds. There will be one preliminary bout of twelve rounds.

The date of the contest between Bill Hanrahan and Tommy West at Coney Island has been changed from June 12 to June 16. Terry McGovern and Tommy White are to clash on the former night.

Tom O'Rourke was informed last night that Tommy Ryan has refused to meet Jack Root at Coney Island this month. Byan says he is titled of tackling men heavier than himself and will only consent to be Root's opponent if the weight is fixed at 155 pounds. Bridgeport, June 6.—Billy Forsyth of Danbury, the bayer who was held on a charge of mansteagher growing out of the death of Eddie Teabout, a local boxer, was discharged by Junge Comby in the City Court this afternoon after an exhaustive hearing of the evidence offered by the State. Forsyth and Teabout was knocked down. He became unconscious and did not regain consciousness, and died two days afterward. The autopsy disclosed a rupture of a small yelu in the bead. The State was unable to show that the rupture resulted from the blow given by Forsyth.

WITH THE TROTTERS.

Cobwebs, Caryle Carne and Lucille to Brush on the Speedway To-day. Frederick F. Ayer has bought of E. De Cernea the bay mare Linda T. by Prince Eugene, 2:21%, out of Linda B. by Hambletonian Prince. De Cernea says the mare trotted a mile in 2:141/2 last season. She is without a public record. Mr. Aver owns the gray mare Dalsy, 2:28%, and it is reported that he is going to increase his string of Speedway trotters to a dozen or more in order to have a fresh horse always on hand.

G. W. Wilder turned up at Speedway Park yesterday with the flea-bitten gray pacing mare Highland Lassie, 2:13%, that he has just purchased from A. Doncourt, of Roslyn, L. I. When her former owner drove her on the Speedway last fall nearly everything could beat her, but she proved to be a good one to steer clear of yesterday. In her first brush with A. C. Fisk's fast pacer, J. F. G., 2:24%, she drew away from the brown gelding quite handily. Mr. Fisk's little horse had previously beaten James Kennedy's hard-trying brown trotter Chris Kennedy's hard-trying brown trotter Chris Lang, 2:21%, with comparative ease, and his owner asked for another round with Highland Lassle. This time the gray mare outfooted J. F. G. as easily as before, running along at a clip that some of the stars might find it hard to equal Mr. Wilder owns the gray mare Girlie, that took the measure of Drex, 2:16%, on the Speedway a day or two ago, and he is going to drive the two gray pacers to pole.

George Wallace, 2:17%, the spee ly little bay pacer that Trainer issae Fleming introduced on pacer that Trainer Isaac Fleming introduced of the Speedway last week, has been sold to L. J.

better be careful, Mr. Fitzsimmons, for if you do not give your hand the best of care you may not be able to use it again." Fitz tried to convince the physician that he was all right, but the doctor would not hear of it.

"If I don't meet Ruhlin on June 15." said Fitz. "I will have to toriet $1,000." "That's the best thins to do," returned the doctor. Fitz will see Dr. Edgerton again this morning and also to-morrow.

The news that the struggle between Fitz and Ruhlin was off created a good deal of talk among the sports last night. Fitz came in for much sympathy as his luck of late has not been of the oses. Runtin may meet Sharkey on June 25 at Coney Island. There was some talk on this subject yesterday. After the "Akron Chant' signed to tacale Fitz his manager, slit whadden, also clinched a 25-round struggie with Sharkey. This "go" was to have been abandoned Sharkey and Ruhlin hadgot through with their respective opponents, McCoy and Fitz-immons. Now that these mills have been abandoned Sharkey and Ruhlin have been a after two brushes, and Maid Thorne, 2:17%, and Princess Sprague took their measure in a spin from the bridge to the hend and back again. Dr. J. H. Carmichael of Springfield, Mass., has brought the fast black trotting mare Nemoline, 2:11%, by Jersey Wilkes, here to drive on the Speedway. It was reported yesterday that he would take him up the road to-day in hopes of getting a brush with the winner of the Cobwebs-Caryle Carne-Lucilie contest. In addition to the brush among the crack tretters, another trial of speed has been arranged for the three great-pacers, Daniel, 2:07½, Hontas Crooke, 2:06, and Jack, 2:12½. Those who wish to see the brushes should reach Washington Bridge shortly arter 4 o'clock.

Annual State Meet of the L. A. W. to Be

The annual State meet of the L. A. W. will h held at Elmira, N. Y., on June 15-16, and this year will be combined with a sidepath commissioners' convention. The semi-annual meeting of the State board of officers will be held during the session. The proceedings include racing, runs over some of the fine sidepaths of Chemung county, speeches and Illustrated lectures on good roads subjects. An effort is being made to insure the presence of Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff.

The semi-annual meeting of the Good Roads Association of Brooklyn and Long Island will be held next Monday night at 473 Flatbush avenue and arrangements have been made to have it a jubilee meeting. The business transacted will be formal and brief, following which there will be a lantern slide talk on sidepaths by H. B. Ful-lerton, speeches by several prominent men, wheelmen, music and an informal reception.

A correspondent of Cycle Age, in a letter from Sydney, N. S. W., dated April 25, says:
"Plugger Bill' Martin, who is at present in West Australia, has announced his intention of returning to America at an early date. He will return to Australia again in time for the next Austral meeting. According to a list compiled by the Australian Cyclist Martin has had particularly good innings on the track during the past five years. The following is the list of his successes:

"Allowance has to be made for time lost in travelling in 1897 and 1898. The full totals are 221 first prizes, 74 second prizes and 37 third prizes. The above are exclusive of heat and match winnings."

The L. A. W. recently defeated an attempt to license bicycles and not other vehicles in Detroit. The proposed tax was $1, and the bill would have passed had it not been opposed by a strong organization. The League saved every wheelmen in Detroit the amount of a year's dues.

Newton, Mass. June 6.—Five automobiles manned by five Harvard students raced from Chestnut Hill to Norumbega Park and return at 5 o'clock this morning. The distance of about thirteen miles was covered in 21 minutes and 15 seconds by the machine controlled by Charles Boyden. Only three of the machines finished, the remaining two meeting with accidents. The trophy was a silver cup. On the outside large sums were wagered.

Simeon Ford, after he had sold the knockabout Mongoose, ordered a new boat to be built by L. D. Huntington of New Rochelle. He calls his new yacht "a freak cathoat" and she certainly deserves the title. The hull of the boat is square-ended, just like the Palm and Akabo, but she has a fin keel instead of a centreboard. Mr. Ford has been out sailing sev-Mongoose II., has done very well. Last Sunday white sailing on the Sound a sharp squall struck her and Mr. Ford let her run before the wind, which fortunately, was blowing toward home. speed but for a disaster that might have been serious.

When near the Connecticut shore the Mongoose struck a rock. The sailor who was lying flat on the deck lorward was thrown into the water. Mr. Ford, who was at the tiller, was thrown forward, and when he collected himself he was lying beside the mast. How it all happened he does not pretend to explain. The sailor was rescued, the Mongoose foated off the rock, and, much to every one's surprise, is not injured.

Their Fellow Students at New Haven Give

Them a Hearty Send-Off. NEW HAVEN, June 6 -Seldom does a Yale athletic delegation get such a send-off as that given the three Yale crews when they left bere for New London this afternoon to finish their training for the regatta with Harvard June 28. Capt. Alien, his 'Varsity four and eight-oared and the freshmen crews left the New Haven house for the train shortly before 3 o'clock. A large for the train shortly before 3 o'clock. A large crowd of under-graduates gathered in front of the hotel and cheered cach man to the echo as he was bundled into the carringes. The carsmen went by train to their headquarters at Gale's Ferry on the Thames, and not on a yacht as has been the custom for some years past. The shells were shipped yesterday, while the launches used by the conchers started early this morning.

Accompanied by Head Coach Dr. Edson F. Galiaudet and Gordon Brown, captain of the 'Varsity football eleven, who is handling the Freshmen eight, the following carsmen left for New London:

Galles Ferry, Conn., June c.—Yale's coarsmen arrived at 445 c'cleck this afternoon. "We are mighty glad to get here, I can assure you," said Dr. Gallaudet, the "Varsity coach, to a Bun reporter; "everything is ktopsy-turvy at present, and it will be impossible for the carsmen to go out in their shells—four eight-cared, two four-oared and two two-cared—with the naphthal launch Scud, were sent ahead from New Haven by train and were sidetracked a short distance from the boathouse. The launch Yale arrived at New London this morning.

Cool weather prevails, but the air is not chilly enough to make the young athleted feel uncomfortable in their light attire. Several of the Yale men have sprung an innovation on Gales Ferry's modest fashions. They have a new headgear made of straw that bears somewhat of a resemblance to an inverted whaleboat, As Caut. Christopher Brown and his immediate neighbors are old-time whalers, the new style aiready has been favorably commented upon and will undoubtedly be quite in vogue here in a few days.

The new electric trolley road was opened between Norwich and New London on Tuesday.

This line, with the Central Vermont and Norwwich and Norester railroads, makes the crew quarters more accessible than ever.
